

LEISURELY LUXURY

19. Jänner 2010

Anantara Villa Lawana Resort & Spa's oriental charm is something everyone simply has to experience for himself.

The Anantara Lawana Resort & Spa in Koh Samui, has opened as the brand's seventh Thai property and their second to grace Samui's shores. With exotic touches that open a window into the life of the island's original Chinese merchant settlers, and occupying an enviable beachfront position just north of Chaweng Beach, the resort's exotic location is just a convenient six kilometres from Samui International Airport. Anantara Lawana offers total immersion in scenic tranquility and leisurely luxury, whilst the hustle and bustle of Chaweng town's shopping and nightlife scene is just a stone's throw away for those who prefer to explore the heart of the island's action. Designed in contemporary Sino-Thai style and embraced by lush tropical gardens, Anantara Lawana boasts 88 spacious rooms and 34 pool villas. Offering intimately oriental sanctuaries, refinement is expressed through plush comforts and exquisitely vibrant silks. The luxurious Anantara Spa incorporates nine en-suite treatment rooms promising pampering journeys encompassing Ayurvedic, traditional Thai and other classic international therapies, as well as blissful personal packages.

Bild: Designed in contemporary Sino-Thai style and embraced by lush tropical gardens, Anantara Lawana boasts 88 spacious rooms and 34 pool villas.

© Anantara

INFO

www.anantara.com

QUELLE:

http://www.reiseaktuell.at/top_news/english_corner/leisurely_luxury/